NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 27th December, 1955

No. LR-1-88:55.—In pursuance of Section 33A of the Government of Part 'C' States Act 1951, the Lieut.-Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to order the publication of the following English Translation of "The Himachal Pradesh Jati Bahishkar Nivaran Adhiniyam, (the Himachal Pradesh Prevention of Excommunication Act) 1955" as passed by the Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha and assented to by the President on the 4th October, 1955.

Act No. 8 of 1955

Himachal Pradesh Prevention of Excommunication Act, 1955

(AUTHORISED TEXT)

AN

ACT

to prohibit excommunication in the Himachal Pradesh

It is hereby enacted in the Sixth Year of Republic as follows :

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Himachal Pradesh Prevention of Excommunication Act, 1955.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definition.—In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "community" means a group the members of which are connected together by reason of the fact that by birth, conversion or the performance of any religious rite they belong to the same religion or religious creed and includes a caste or sub-caste;

- (b) "excommunication" means the expulsion of a person from any community of which he is a member depriving him of rights and privileges which are legally enforceable by a suit of civil nature by him or on his behalf as such member.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause a right legally enforceable by a suit of civil nature shall include the right to office or property or to worship in any religious place or a right of burial or cremation, notwithstanding the fact that the determination of such right depends entirely on the decision of the question as to any religious rites or ceremonies or rule or usage of a community.

3. Excommunication not to be valid and of any effect.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, custom or usage for the time being in force, to the contrary, no excommunication of a member of any community shall be valid and shall be of any effect.

4. Penalty.—Any person who does any act which amounts to or is in furtherance of the excommunication of any member of a community shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Explanation.—When any person alleged to have committed an offence under this section is a body or an association of individuals, whether incorporated or not, if the offence is alleged to have been committed at a meeting of such body or association, any individual who has voted in favour of the decision regarding the excommunication shall be deemed to have committed the offence.

5. Jurisdiction under this Act.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, no court inferior to that of the Magistrate of the 1st Class shall try any offence punishable under section 4.

6. Mode of taking cognizance of offence.—No court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under section 4—

- (a) after the expiry of one year from the date of which the offence is alleged to have been committed; and
- (b) without the previous sanction of the Lieutenant Governor of Himachal Pradesh or any officer authorized by him not below the rank of the District Magistrate.

By order,

B. D. SHARMA,

Assistant Secretary (Judicial).

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 13th December, 1955

No. Ex-38-102/55.—Press Note No. 34 dated the 29th September, 1955 regarding Sales Tax issued by the Government of Madras as contained in annexure "A" to this Notification is hereby published for general information.

Annexure "A"

On the basis of Article 286 of the Constitution of India as interpreted by the Supreme Court Judgement in the case relating to the State of Bombay versus the United Motors (India) Ltd., this Government were levying sales tax from April 1, 1953, onwards from non-resident dealers in respect of inter-State transactions in which the goods were delivered in this State for the purpose of consumption.

It has been reported that in its judgement dated September 6, 1955 in the case relating to the Bengal Immunity Company Ltd., versus the State of Bihar, the Supreme Court has reversed its previous decision in the Bombay case and has held that until Parliament by law provides otherwise, no State should impose Sales tax on out of State dealers in respect of sales or purchases that have taken place in the course of inter-State trade or commerce although the goods have been delivered as a direct result of such sales or purchases for consumption in that particular state.

Pending an examination of the implications of the above judgement, this Government have issued instructions to their subordinate officers that further levy of sales tax on such inter-State sales should be suspended with effect from September 1, 1955.

By order,
BASANT RAI,
Assistant Secretary (Revenue).
